

Ambiguity

Nathan Dann

Ambiguity
Nature I sought to conquer
a set of variables to be optimized

Repress the fury
block it out
don't listen
to the call

Of the Infinite
The Sublime

That is not reality
not what we do Get those ideas out of your head
they are dangerous
of no value
No Profit

Head down
Smile

grimace
Tolerate
Silence the Voice
Don't let it in Comply

It will pay off
One day I will be free
One more year
One more year
One more year

The vigor of youth
desire
hunger
rage
Disassembled slowly
Insidiously

It's inevitable
so they say
That takes the edge off

Be content

Settle down
You have it made

A new car
A house
 with a stack of dusty books
 a remnant of my youth
 all but forgotten
A thirty-year mortgage
 an investment
A marriage
that sealed my fate

I knew it then
but dared not listen

The last straw
The damnation of my fury, my hunger
 that I locked away
 forgot to feed
 buried

This is what we do
This is
 dignity
 responsibility
 reality

Avoid discomfort
uncertainty
Ambiguity
keep it at bay Eyes closed
don't let it take hold
 The Fear
 The Infinite
